REPENT

“You are the man.” These words, spoken to King David by the prophet Nathan in the passage just before today’s first reading, were a wake-up call to David that he had done wrong in taking the wife of Uriah and having Uriah killed in battle. The story that woke David up to his own guilt was about a rich man who had many sheep, but took and slaughtered the only sheep of a poor man. David thought the man should be punished, but when Nathan made known to him that this story was about David himself, David woke up to his own sin and repented, and the Lord forgave him.

Today’s psalm of David reinforces for us the necessity of recognizing our own guilt and confessing it before the Lord. Then “[b]lessed is the one whose fault is taken away, / whose sin is covered” (Psalm 32:1). God becomes our shelter, and gives us back our freedom.

SAINT ROMUALD (c. 951-1027)

June 19

“God so loved the world,” declares John 3:16. “Do not love the world,” warns 1 John 2:15. The “world” to love: this planet, entrusted to our stewardship, and its people, God’s children all. The “world” to flee: “sensual lust, enticement for the eyes, and a pretentious life” (1 John 2:16). Born in nobility, Romuald’s conversion followed the shock of witnessing his father murder an enemy. Renouncing his privileged world, Romuald sought God’s world in monastic life. Its winding turns and several dead ends make Romuald’s journey resonate with all who find life more maze than superhighway. Both the hermit’s solitary struggle and community life’s unique challenges shaped Romuald’s legacy: his vast Camaldolese Benedictine family of monks, nuns, and lay associates who, these thousand years later, from the mountain solitude of Camaldoli, Italy to an urban monastery in Berkeley, California—in Asia, Africa, South America, Europe—integrate Romuald’s experience into their witness of solitary prayer, communal charity and worship, and promotion of contemplative spirituality in this world that can so easily distract us from the God who loves it still.

Freedom and Responsibility

#1731 Freedom is the power, rooted in reason and will, to act or not act, to do this or that, and so to perform deliberate actions on one’s own responsibility. By free will one shapes one’s own life. Human freedom is a force for growth and maturity in truth and goodness; it attains its perfection when directed toward God, our beatitude.

#1732 As long as freedom has not bound itself definitively to its ultimate good which is God, there is the possibility of choosing between good and evil, and thus of growing in perfection or of failing and sinning. This freedom characterizes properly human acts. It is the basis of praise or blame, merit or reproach.

Looking Ahead...

As this school year has ended, we are already planning for the 2010-2011 year. The hope is always to improve the Religious Education Program in such a way as to make the children feel excited about coming to class. The classes should be filled with learning in a safe and caring atmosphere. The hope is to teach about the love of God and how that love touches family, friends and the world around us.

Dear St. Luke Parishioners:

In order to understand the Catholic Church better, we need to learn more and more about the various ways that it affects our everyday lives. If you are parents with children, how do you apply our Catholic faith to them? How do you explain the Mass to them?

If you are thinking about and/or planning to be married in the near future, you should want to know what the Church teaches about love and marriage and about marriage and prayer.

The Catholic Church wants to help its members to become more informed on matters of faith and morals. The more informed, the better prepared you will be to live as Catholics in our secular world. The Church has just about 2000 years of experience in just about everything that we will face during our lives here on earth. The mainstream media doesn't always tell us the right way to live our lives; in fact, it often distorts how our lives should be lived. Those who follow popular trends almost always end up with broken marriages, parental/child disputes, and who knows what else.

One way to learn Church teachings and suggestions on ways to become better Catholics we were meant to be is through another type of media—the Catholic media.

There is a relatively new program - Lighthouse Catholic Media - which can assist in these ever-important areas to help you learn more about yourselves, your relationships and the Church. St. Luke's Parish will be offering this program to you. These are a series of CDs covering a myriad of topics; for example, "Teenage Rebel to Catholic Priest;" another being "How to Keep Your Kids Catholic," etc. The great advantage of CDs is that you can pop them into your CD player in the car while driving to and from work, driving your children to their sports and other activities, or listening to them while at home.

These CDs will be available here at St. Luke's on an ongoing basis.

The Paschal Banquet

"Take this and eat it, all of you"

#1384 The Lord addresses an invitation to us, urging us to receive him in the sacrament of the Eucharist: "Truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of man and drink his blood, you have no life in you."

#1385 To respond to this invitation we must prepare ourselves for so great and so holy a moment. St. Paul urges us to examine our conscience: "Whoever, therefore, eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of profaning the body and blood of the Lord. Let a man examine himself, and so eat of the bread and drink of the cup. For any one who eats and drinks without discerning the body eats and drinks judgment upon himself." Anyone conscious of a grave sin must receive the sacrament of Reconciliation before coming to communion. (Emphasis added)

"God wishes to be asked, God wishes to be forced, God wishes, in a certain manner, to be overcome by our prayer."

Pope St. Gregory I, The Great

JOIN THE CHORUS!!

The Children's Choir which sings at the 9:00 a.m. mass every Sunday is changing its rehearsal time to Thursday nights at 7:20 p.m. New members are always welcome to add their voices in song!! If you are interested in participating, please call Kevin Lucia at 650 740-9072.

LECTORS & CAPTAINS

July/August Lector/Captain Schedules – Peggy Simkins will be preparing the Lector and Captain schedules for the next two months. If you know of dates that you will be unable to read or captain in July & August, please call Peggy or the Parish Office by Tuesday, June 22nd. You may reach Peggy at 573-5370. Leave a message if you are not able to speak to Peggy directly. Thank you.

LOST AND FOUND

Various items are often left behind in the church following the Sunday Masses. These include prescription glasses, umbrellas, children's toys, books, etc. When these items are located they are brought to the Parish Office and are kept for a good length of time. If you have lost anything and you think it might be here, please contact our Parish Office at 650-345-6660.

Catholic Radio

Tune your radio to 1260 AM for 24-hour broadcasts concerning Catholic teachings and prayers.

Please Pray for Priests

Dear Lord,
 we pray that the Blessed Mother
 wrap her mantle around your priests and through her intercession
 strengthen them for their ministry.
 We pray that Mary will guide your priests
 to follow her own words,
 "Do whatever He tells you" (Jn 2:5).
 May your priests have the heart of St. Joseph,
 Mary's most chaste spouse.
 May the Blessed Mother's own pierced heart inspire them to embrace
 all who suffer at the foot of the cross.
 May your priests be holy,
 filled with the fire of your love
 seeking nothing but your greater glory
 and the salvation of souls.
 Amen.

Saint John Vianney, pray for us.
